

Pieter N. Dwinger
Vice Chairman

Pieter N. Dwinger is vice chairman and a member of the Board of Directors for the 30th Annual Dana Point Concours d'Elegance. He manages all aspects of the design and layout and on-field placement of all exhibitor vehicles, sponsors tents and canopies on the St. Regis and Sea Terrace Park property. His daily responsibilities also include overseeing the operations for the Dana Point Concours d'Elegance.

Dwinger started his career with the Dana Point Concours more than 13 years ago, assisting and directing the design of the exhibitor vehicle field layout. Dwinger has also been a Steering Committee member for more than 13 years and on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee for nearly seven years. In addition to his executive duties, Dwinger is currently the associate chief judge, overseeing and directing the preparation of all vehicle judging activities in coordination with the chief judge and other team members.

Actively involved in owning, restoring and showing vintage automobiles for years, Dwinger fell in love with antique cars during high school. Many of his restorations have won national awards and Concours class awards. As a master judge of vintage and collector car events around the globe, Dwinger has been tapped by enthusiasts for his expertise in restoring vehicles.

Previously, Dwinger worked in the real estate development and construction business for more than 40 years as CEO of his firms. Renowned for his ability to resolve construction contract and defect disputes as an arbitrator and mediator, he has served as a superior court expert witness for all types of construction-related litigation. Dwinger was invited by the United Arab Emirates Government and Business consortium to conduct an in-depth seminar on alternate dispute resolution using arbitration and mediation processes.

Graduating with a bachelor's degree in business management and construction management, Dwinger lives under the philosophy of conducting business with honor and dignity.
